

Budd Traver Memorial Award – Student Form

As a student of a Vancouver Island South District CPS course, this is your opportunity to submit the name of an exceptional person in the training department for the annual Budd Traver Memorial Award. This recognition is awarded to the outstanding instructor selected for their work in aiding in the learning process of CPS students. The nominee will be the instructor who taught you during this course, who you feel has earned the recognition of their peers for their outstanding contribution. When you have completed this form, please hand it in to your instructor. Note that completion of this form is optional, and you as a student are under no obligation to complete or submit it.

Name of Nominee _____ Squadron _____
Your Course Title _____ Date _____

- 1. This person made you comfortable and at ease in the classroom.
A. Always      B. Sometimes      C. Once in a while
- 2. This person was able to simplify difficult course material and make it easier to comprehend.
A. Always      B. Sometimes      C. Once in a while
- 3. You would like to have this person teaching this material to your friends
A. Always      B. Sometimes      C. Once in a while
- 4. This person was committed to ensuring you understood the course material.
A. Always      B. Sometimes      C. Once in a while
- 5. This person aided in providing an interesting learning experience, one you would like to repeat in the future.
A. Always      B. Sometimes      C. Once in a while

Please feel free to write in some comments, explaining why you think this person should earn the award for the outstanding member of a training department.

---

---

---

---

---

Thank you